PROSPECTUS.

In view of the increasing interest manifested in Old Testament study by Christian ministers and teachers, and at the suggestion of several who are themselves specially engaged in this study, it has been decided to issue a monthly periodical, which shall be devoted exclusively to the interests of Old Testament Literature and Interpretation.

That there is a field for such a Journal, no one will deny. The importance of the Old Testament in itself, and in its relation to the New, is more widely recognized to-day than at any former period in the history of the Church.

The malignant attacks of its enemies, and the theoretical reconstructions proposed by its too liberal friends, have done and are doing much to incite not only specialists but also pastors, and even laymen, to personal investigation of the questions at issue.

The fact that a new translation of the Old Testament is being made, affords an additional incentive to activity in this line. Pastors feel that they must prepare themselves to pass judgment on it. Where one hundred men can be found capable of pronouncing an intelligent opinion in reference to the changes made in the Revised Version of the New Testament, there are not five whose opinion on the changes made in the Revised Version of the Old Testament will be worthy of consideration.

It is true that papers in this line of study are sometimes published in "Reviews" and "Religious Weeklies." But it is also true (1) that "Reviews" find their way into the hands of comparatively few of our ministers, and (2) that a family newspaper is not the place and has not the room for the publication of such articles as are demanded at the present time.

Whether this periodical will subserve the purpose for which it is established is, of course, more or less an experiment. If the experiment prove a failure, it will not be for the lack of an able corps of contributors, a prudent business management, and an unlimited amount of hard work.

Attention is invited especially to the following points:

(1.) The Journal will be to a certain extent popular in its character. It will aim to encourage and, so far as possible, to instruct all classes of Old Testament students. It is not intended solely for those who are acquainted with the Hebrew.

(2.) In its attitude towards "new theories," it will be conservative. Judicious discussion of questions of criticism will be encouraged, but in no case will the editor be responsible for views expressed by contributors.

(3.) The leading articles of each number will be furnished by the most eminent scholars and writers in this department of study. Among others, the following may be mentioned as contributors:

PROF. E. BENJ. ANDREWS,
Newton Theological Seminary, Newton Centre, Mass.

PROF. WILLIS J. BEECHER,
Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Auburn, N. Y.

PROF. CHARLES A. BRIGGS, D.D.,
Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

PROF. S. BURNHAM,
Baptist Theological Seminary, Hamilton, N. Y.

PROF. SAMUEL I. CURTISS, D.D.,
Congregational Theological Seminary, Chicago.

PROF. CHARLES ELLIOTT, D.D.,
London, Ontario, Canada.

PROF. NORMAN FOX,
158 West Fifty-eighth St., New York City.

DR. HENRY GERSONI,
Editor of "The Maccabean," Chicago.

PRES. G. W. NORTHRUP, D.D.,
Baptist Union Theological Seminary, Chicago.

PROF. HENRY S. OSBORNE,
University, Oxford, O.

REV. JUSTIN A. SMITH, D.D.,
Editor of "The Standard," Chicago.

PROF. JAMES STRONG, S.T.D.,
Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J.

PROF. B. C. TAYLOR,
Crozer Theological Seminary, Chester, Pa.

(4.) The articles published will cover a very wide range, including topics in "Ancient History," "Biography," "Chronology," "Geography," and "Archæology," as well as in "Introduction," and "Hermeneutics."

Exegeses of obscure or important texts will form a prominent feature of each issue.

There will also be furnished from time to time discussions of "Hebrew Poetry," "Hebrew Synonyms," and points in Grammar and Lexicography.

Selections and translations from the best books and periodicals will be given a proportionate amount of space.

Notices of books (old as well as new) relating to this department will receive careful attention.

Mention will also be made from number to number of important articles in Journals and Reviews (German and English), which bear directly or indirectly upon the Old Testament.

A page will be given in each number to answering grammatical and, so far as practicable, general questions on the Hebrew of the Old Testament.

(5.) The size of the periodical will be increased to twenty-four or thirty-two pages, as soon as the subscription will justify it.
